London Escorts at London Escort Agency Blue Velvet Girls

We are a prestigious London Escorts Agency offering hand picked companions for gentlemen throughout London. Blue Velvet Girls has a selection of well educated, beautiful girls who are offering their sensual companionship to discerning gentlemen worldwide. Our London Escorts are all young, alluring, deliciously gorgeous and sexy, with charming personalities.

Blue Velvet girls come to existence few years ago by a group of girls that were escorts themselves; they were not happy with some practices and standards of the industry so they decided to come together and create an agency that they would enjoy working for and hopefully many other girls would also appreciate and want to join!

Blue Velvet Girls is a direct response to what the industry was lacking and what escort girls were looking for – an agency that promotes adult companionship with honesty and integrity; with Blue Velvet all the girls are their own bosses which brings a variety of personalities and styles and you will meet girls that enjoy what they do because they do what they enjoy and when they want! There is a receptionist who is highly professional, friendly and very able to handle your queries with professionalism, discretion and confidentiality.

Blue Velvet Girls is an agency of and for the girls and hopefully you will notice the difference and want to be our client because of the obvious - beautiful girls! but also contrary to the common opinion of the industry we promote and have an agency that is honest, clean, discreet and reliable and does not promote or supports any illegal activities.
